

At Autotech Recruit, we are dedicated to supporting our contractors in their personal development and skill enhancement. This commitment is strengthened by our sister brand, Autotech Training, which offers IMI-approved technical and non-technical training to the automotive industry. As an Autotech Recruit contractor, you can take full advantage of these opportunities!

To benefit from this offer, you simply need to complete three months of consistent work with us and meet the course-specific requirements. The best part? We offer this training to you free of charge!

If you're interested in these training courses, simply contact your contracts manager. Alternatively, give us a call at 01234 240503 or email sales@autotechrecruit.co.uk to get started!
